

NORTHERN
LAND COUNCIL

MEDIA RELEASE

Our Land, Our Sea, Our Life

NLC welcomes new Aboriginal Affairs minister

31 January 2019

The NLC welcomes the announcement today of Selena Uibo as the new Aboriginal Affairs Minister in the Northern Territory Government.

NLC Interim Acting CEO Rick Fletcher said: “We look forward to working with Ms Uibo in her new role as Minister for Aboriginal Affairs.

“Ms Uibo has strong personal connections with our region through her mother and has a good understanding of the issues affecting Aboriginal people.

“She has proven herself to be an effective young leader in her previous portfolios and is strong advocate for Aboriginal people in the Territory.

“We will work productively with Ms Uibo and the NT Government to progress issues important to Aboriginal Territorians such as Treaty, economic development, housing and upcoming Blue Mud Bay Sea Country settlement negotiations.”

NLC contact: Martha Tattersall 0427 031 382